mensa otabil sermons pdf: Ever Increasing Faith Smith Wigglesworth, 2005-02-26 Smith Wigglesworth was born to a very poor family. At the age of six he had to go to work. In 1907, he received the baptism in the Holy Ghost, which changed his life forever. It was then, at the age of 48, that God moved Wigglesworth from a small relatively unknown ministry to conducting powerful meetings throughout the world, stirring the faith of thousands to receive healing and salvation. Wigglesworth would usually conclude a sermon by praying for the sick; regardless of what text he had ministered. Smith Wigglesworth's ministry centred on salvation for the unconverted, healing for the sick, and a call to believers to be baptized in the Holy Ghost. He was filled with God...with love, compassion, and faith. On March 12, 1947, Smith Wigglesworth, in perfect health, closed his eyes and slipped into eternity, at the age of 87.

mensa otabil sermons pdf: Tabernacle of David Paperback Book Dr T A Makoni, 2017-10-19 The Tabernacle of David is a key revelation to national impact by the Church. It restores the place of believers as kings and priests who should not choose one function above another. They should exercise both functions for Kingdom expansion. It provides case studies from competing worldviews on how to disciple our world. Jesus said, Go disciple nations! So far the Church has been doing a poor job of this. I believe that this revelation is one more cog in the wheel that will help believers take their place of influence and advance the Kingdom mandate on earth. May His Kingdom come and His will be done on earth as it is Heaven!

mensa otabil sermons pdf: Extraordinary Fruitfulness Apostle Joshua Selman, 2020-12-12 Nothing ever happens on its own on this earth. Evil or good. Miracles do not happen just like that, tragedy too. Failures do not just happen, success does not just happen, the anointing does not just come, people don't just backslide. There is always certain operations that are initiated even in ignorance. For example, if I kick a speaker by mistake, the pain will not refuse to come to my leg because it thinks I made a mistake, as far as the system of pain is concerned that action calls for it. So, in ignorance, we have activated a lot of spiritual laws and dis-coordinated them and we have become victims of the interplay of those laws. It's like cutting a naked wire and putting it on your head by mistake when it's raining. Now, whether you're aware or not, the wire will not excuse that mistake. It'll shock you. Read This Book and Be Blessed.

mensa otabil sermons pdf: The Three Most Important Things Apostle Joshua Selman, 2020-12-23 Not everything in your life produces the same effect as far as your destiny is concerned. God gave us 24 hours and it's full of several activities that can move us towards destiny but not all of them move us at the same level and not all of them carry the same gravity. It is very important we understand this. I think one of the wrong perceptions that our generation has is that we allocate equal time, equal priority and equal interest to everything and anything. Your time for play is equal to your time of prayer. Your time of gisting is equal to your time of personal development. There must be a system of prioritizing your life and I want to show you the three most important things in a man's life in my opinion and supported by scripture. These three areas I want to show you today are worth dying for. Not everything is worth dying for. There are people who have died for nothing; there are people who have died the deaths of fools but it is important to know what is worth committing your energy, your time and your money. At the end of your life, there are only few things that will make your life count. Believe me when I tell you this. In the maze of several activities clamoring for your attention, the average young man is like a magnet attracting different things that need your attention in life and I have found out in my little experience and by the privilege of wisdom and mentorship and the word that in the end of your life, there are not more than four (4) or five (5) things that are worth living for. So, in our business; an attempt to make money, marry, serve God, grow ministries, expand, etc all of these things are important but a time must come in our life where we have to shut the door and ask ourselves what is really important? because many of us as I'll be showing you, if you don't know what is important you'll major on the minors and minor on the majors. mensa otabil sermons pdf: The Mystery Of Altars and Foundations Apostle Joshua Selman, 2020-11-27 An altar is a gateway between the realm of the spirit and the earth realm that grants unhindered access to certain spirit beings to find legal expression in the earth. An altar is a legal landing spot of the spirit on the earth. An altar is an altar because of the presence of sacrifice, the realm of the spirit wants to interact with the realm of the earth legally and vice versa because the inhabitants of the earth know that without the realm of the spirit they are limited in the possibilities that they can produce, they call for the assistance of these spirit beings. In agreement to bring these possibilities to the inhabitants of earth, the spirits give their conditions, certain things that can create a habitation that will look exactly like where they are coming from and then they summarize their demands in what they call sacrifice and they ask men to raise certain structures and put certain sacrifices. The kind of sacrifice on the altar depends on the kind of spirit that wants to access the earth, the absence of sacrifice on an altar makes it unqualified to be called an altar, thus, the sacrifice is what makes it an altar and the kind of spirit to whom the altar is raised determines whether the altar will be a good one or a bad one. mensa otabil sermons pdf: African Initiated Christianity and the Decolonisation of Development Philipp Öhlmann, Wilhelm Gräb, Marie-Luise Frost, 2020-01-07 This book investigates the substantial and growing contribution which African Independent and Pentecostal Churches are making to sustainable development in all its manifold forms. Moreover, this volume seeks to elucidate how these churches reshape the very notion of sustainable development and contribute to the decolonisation of development. Fostering both overarching and comparative perspectives, the book includes chapters on West Africa (Nigeria, Ghana, and Burkina Faso) and Southern Africa (Zimbabwe and South Africa). It aims to open up a subfield focused on African Initiated Christianity within the religion and development discourse, substantially broadening the scope of the existing literature. Written predominantly by scholars from the African continent, the chapters in this volume illuminate potentials and perspectives of African Initiated Christianity, combining theoretical contributions, essays by renowned church leaders, and case studies focusing on particular churches or regional contexts. While the contributions in this book focus on the African continent, the notion of development underlying the concept of the volume is deliberately wide and multidimensional, covering economic, social, ecological, political, and cultural dimensions. Therefore, the book will be useful for the community of scholars interested in religion and development as well as researchers within African studies, anthropology, development studies, political science, religious studies, sociology of religion, and theology. It will also be a key resource for development policymakers and practitioners.

mensa otabil sermons pdf: Christianity, Wealth, and Spiritual Power in Ghana Karen Lauterbach, 2016-11-25 This book centers around mid-level charismatic pastors in Ghana. Karen Lauterbach analyzes pastorship as a pathway to becoming small "big men" and achieving status, wealth, and power in the country. The volume investigates both the social processes of becoming a pastor and the spiritual dimensions of how power and wealth are conceptualized, achieved, and legitimized in the particular context of Asante in Ghana. Lauterbach integrates her analysis of charismatic Christianity with a historically informed examination of social mobility—how people in subordinate positions seek to join up with power. She explores how the ideas and experiences surrounding the achievement of wealth and performance of power are shaped and re-shaped. In this way, the book historicizes current expressions of charismatic Christianity in Ghana while also bringing the role of religion and belief to bear on our understanding of wealth and power as they function more broadly in African societies.

mensa otabil sermons pdf: Does Religion Make a Difference? Andreas Heuser, Jens Koehrsen, 2020-05-08 Religions are increasingly being regarded as relevant partners in international development cooperation due to their special attributes. However, to date there has been little research into what the special attributes of religious development agencies actually are or how such organisations employ them. What resources do religious NGOs draw on in development cooperation? How do such NGOs differ from other development agencies? Does their engagement make a considerable difference to collaborative development work? Using empirical case studies and theoretical analysis, the contributions in this book address these questions. In doing so, they examine different religions and their collaborative development work in various regions of the world, and chart the most recent changes in religions. With contributions by Jeffrey Haynes, Katherine Marshall, Andreas Heuser, Jens Koehrsen, Dena Freeman, Richard Friedli, Wilhelm Gräb, Ulrich Dehn, Marie Juul Petersen, Claudia Hoffmann, Sinah Theres Kloß, Yonatan N. Gez, Katrin Langewiesche, Suwanto Adi, Ido Benvenisti, Christine Schliesser, Leif H. Seibert, Philipp Öhlmann, Marie-Luise Frost, Adi Maya.

mensa otabil sermons pdf: Dear White Christians Jennifer Harvey, 2020-07-14 “If reconciliation is the takeaway point for the civil rights story we usually tell, then the takeaway point for the more complex, more truthful civil rights story contained in Dear White Christians is reparations.” — from the preface to the second edition With the troubling and painful events of the last several years—from the killing of numerous unarmed Black men and women at the hands of police to the rallying of white supremacists in Charlottesville—it is clearer than ever that the reconciliation paradigm, long favored by white Christians, has failed to heal the deep racial wounds in the church and American society. In this provocative book, originally published in 2014, Jennifer Harvey argues for a radical shift away from the well-meaning but feeble longing for reconciliation toward a robustly biblical call for reparations. Now in its second edition—with a new preface addressing the explosive changes in American culture and politics since 2014, as well as an appendix that explores what a reparations paradigm can actually look like—Dear White Christians calls justice-committed Christians to do the gospel-inspired work of opposing racist social structures around them. Harvey’s message is historically and scripturally rooted, making it ideal for facilitating the difficult but important discussions about race that are so desperately needed in churches and faith-centered classrooms across the country.
