We will unpack the spiritual disciplines involved, addressing common challenges and offering practical strategies for growth.

Chapter 1: The Discipline of Sitting - Cultivating Intimacy with God

The "sitting" posture represents a state of spiritual stillness and communion with God. It emphasizes the importance of dedicated time spent in prayer, meditation, and the study of Scripture. This isn't simply about attending church services; it's about cultivating a deep, personal relationship with God through consistent spiritual practices.

The Importance of Quiet Time: In today's fast-paced world, finding quiet time can feel like a luxury. Yet, it's a necessity for spiritual growth. A dedicated quiet time, even if just for 15-20 minutes each day, allows us to disconnect from the distractions of the world and connect with God. This time should be structured, setting aside specific times for prayer, Bible study, and meditation. This structured approach promotes consistency and prevents procrastination.

Prayer: Prayer is not merely a list of requests; it's a conversation with God. It's about pouring out our hearts, sharing our joys and sorrows, and listening for His guidance. Learning to truly listen in prayer is crucial; this requires silence and attentiveness to God's leading. Different forms of prayer, such as intercessory prayer, contemplative prayer, and spontaneous prayer, can enrich our communion with God.

Meditation: Meditation involves focusing the mind on God's Word or His attributes. It's a practice of centering our thoughts and affections on Him, allowing His peace and presence to permeate our being. This can involve focusing on a specific scripture verse, reflecting on a particular aspect of God's character, or simply resting in His presence.

Bible Study: The Bible is the Word of God, offering guidance, instruction, and inspiration. Regular Bible study is essential for spiritual growth. It's not simply about reading; it's about understanding and applying the principles of scripture to our daily lives. This may involve using study tools, joining a Bible study group, or engaging in personal reflection on scripture.

Chapter 2: The Discipline of Walking - Living Out Faith in Daily Life

The "walking" posture emphasizes the practical application of faith in our daily lives. It involves living out our beliefs in our relationships, work, and interactions with the world. This is where our faith is tested and refined.

Integrity in Relationships: Our faith should shape our relationships with others. This means treating everyone with love, respect, and compassion, regardless of their beliefs or background. Forgiveness, empathy, and reconciliation become vital aspects of walking in faith. It demands a willingness to serve others and build authentic connections, reflecting Christ's love.

Ethical Conduct in Work: Our workplace is another arena where our faith is put to the test. Honesty, integrity, diligence, and a commitment to excellence should be hallmarks of our professional lives. We are called to be examples of Christ's character in our interactions with colleagues and clients. This includes upholding ethical standards, even when it's challenging, and treating others with fairness and respect.

Navigating Challenges and Difficulties: Life is full of challenges, and our faith will be tested. Walking with God means facing these difficulties with trust and reliance on His strength. This involves seeking His guidance, trusting in His sovereignty, and maintaining hope even in the midst of hardship. This requires perseverance, spiritual resilience, and faith in God's promises.

Chapter 3: The Discipline of Standing - Perseverance and Steadfastness

The "standing" posture emphasizes perseverance and steadfastness in faith amidst trials, persecution, and spiritual warfare. It's about maintaining our integrity and commitment to God's purposes, even when faced with opposition or adversity.

Spiritual Warfare: We are engaged in a spiritual battle against forces of darkness. Standing firm requires recognizing the reality of spiritual warfare and actively resisting the enemy's attacks through prayer, fasting, and reliance on the power of the Holy Spirit. Discernment and spiritual armor become essential tools in this spiritual battle.

Resilience in the Face of Adversity: Life inevitably presents challenges that test our faith. Standing firm requires developing spiritual resilience, the ability to bounce back from setbacks and maintain our commitment to God's purposes. This resilience is built through prayer, spiritual disciplines, and a strong community of faith. The ability to learn from failures and persevere through hardships is vital.

Unwavering Commitment: Our commitment to God should be unwavering. This involves remaining steadfast in our faith, even when faced with opposition or persecution. It requires a deep understanding of God's love, a trust in His plan, and a commitment to following Him, whatever the cost. This involves a personal commitment to grow spiritually and remain faithful to God's calling.

sit walk stand watchman nee pdf: How to Study the Bible Watchman Nee, 1999 The Bible is the inspired word of God, and every believer should study it in order to know the rich and vast content of God's divine provisions. When God speaks, He does so through His established word. Therefore, we must study the Bible in a proper way in order to let the word of God dwell richly in our hearts. In order to study the Bible, we first must be proper persons, having passed through the necessary spiritual training under the Lord's leading and guiding. We must also use the right methods. Many good books have been printed on how to study the Bible, but most pay attention only to methods of studying the Bible; They do not pay enough attention to the person who studies the Bible. Even with the right methods, we can receive very little in our study of the Bible if our person is not proper before the Lord.

sit walk stand watchman nee pdf: A Balanced Christian Life Watchman Nee, 1981-12-01 Ephraim is a cake not turned (Hosea 7.8). This is a figurative way of saying 'not balanced'. The cake is burned on the one side, uncooked on the other; on one side it is overdone, on the other, totally undone. The cake is unfit to be eaten and is thus destined to be cast out. Our God is most balanced. He is love and He is light. Our Lord Jesus is full of grace and full of truth. The Holy Spirit is the Spirit of wisdom as well as of revelation. In creation, God hath measured the waters in the hollow of his hand, and meted out heaven with a span, and comprehended the dust of the earth in a measure, and the hills in a balance (Is. 40.12). Concerning redemption, it is said that mercy and truth are met together, righteousness and peace have kissed each other. Truth springeth out of the earth; and righteousness hath looked down from heaven (Ps. 85.10,11). The new creation, therefore, must be well balanced. In this present volume, Watchman Nee attempts to show from God's word the perfect equilibrium of divine truth. Human nature, however, is prone to emphasize one side to the exclusion of the other side of truth. This has caused much confusion and many problems among God's people. It is essential that we know the balance of truth and hold on to both sides so that our Christian life may be well rounded as God has ordained. The contents of the book opens with a treatment of the balance between the gate and the way; continues with a presentation of the balance between the objective and the subjective; includes a discussion on the work inward and the work outward in the Christian life, as well as on the rest given and the rest found as promised by Christ; contemplates the other side of prayer frequently neglected, namely, to watch; and concentrates on the other less emphasized aspect of the trespass-offering, that of restoration. The book then provides a commentary on the contrast between the truly meek and the spiritually poor, and finally concludes with a consideration of the equilibrium that is so necessary between the believer's faith and the believer's walk. May all who read this volume be brought into a balanced Christian life.

sit walk stand watchman nee pdf: The Normal Christian Life Watchman Nee, 2023-01-09 The Normal Christian Life is a book by Watchman Nee first delivered as a series of addresses to Christian workers who were gathered in Denmark for special meetings in 1938 and 1939. The messages were first published chapter by chapter in the magazine A Witness and A Testimony published by Theodore Austin-Sparks. The first chapter was published in the November-December 1940 issue. This first publication of the book can be viewed in the original magazines on Austin-Sparks.Net. The messages were later compiled into a book by Angus Kinnear in 1957 in Bombay, India. In The Normal Christian Life, Watchman Nee presents foundational principles for the Christian life and walk drawing primarily from the book of Romans. The book is generally regarded by many as the first introduction of Watchman Nee to the Western world. As of 2009, this book has sold over 1 million copies and is available in many editions and languages. Watchman Nee based his speaking on the first eight chapters of the New Testament book of Romans. Nee takes the first eight chapters of Romans as a self-contained unit and divides these chapters into two parts: Romans 1:1 to 5:11 as part one and Romans 5:12 to 8:39 as part two. In the first part of Romans sins is given prominent attention and deals with the question of the sins man has committed before God. However, the second section deals with sin, that is the inward nature, or inward working principle, within man that causes man to commit sin. Thus there is a difference between the acts of a sinner, sins, and the inward nature of a sinner, sin. Nee reveals that God's dual remedy is the Blood of the Lord Jesus Christ and the Cross of Christ. The Blood deals with what we have done, whereas the Cross deals with what we are. The Blood disposes of our sins, while the Cross strikes at the root of our capacity for sin. As Nee progressively moves along in his book, he first touches upon the Blood and then focuses upon the Cross for the remainder of the book. Watchman Nee gave four steps in which a Christian lives the Christian life. Basing from Romans 6:6, there is the need for the knowledge of the cross of Christ as a fact in our experience. The second step is the matter of reckoning. Reckoning is the stating and considering of facts and promises that God has revealed to be true. The third step is the matter of presenting to God. Coming to Romans 6:13, Watchman Nee says that Christians consecrate that which passed through death and resurrection in the new creation. In this way, Christians would no longer live to themselves but to Christ because He has the full authority over their lives. The fourth step is the matter of Walking after the Spirit. Firstly, walking after the Spirit does not refer to our working but of dependence on God's working and operation. Secondly, it refers to subjection. This means that the Christian life is the yielding of all the dictates of our flesh and be of subjection to the Spirit. The Normal Christian Life is one of Nee's most well known books. It is considered by many to be a spiritual classic of Christianity. It has been reprinted and reissued in many editions and in many languages. The book's enduring appeal is not only due to Nee's exposition of Romans but also to the many illustrations, personal accounts, and anecdotes that Nee used. The Normal Christian Life has impacted millions of Christians since Nee spoke it and is a major contributor to the local churches movement today. Nee was recognized in the United States House of Representatives by Christopher H. Smith of New Jersey in 2009. He recognized Nee as having been one of the most influential Chinese Christians of his era. In the Congressional record, The Normal Christian Life is highlighted by Smith as being among his most popular and influential books. (wikipedia.org)

sit walk stand watchman nee pdf: Spiritual Discernment Watchman Nee, 2010-03-24 Listen to the prayer of the apostle Paul for his beloved church in Philippi: "this I pray, that your love may abound yet more and more in knowledge and all discernment; so that ye may approve the things that are excellent; that ye may be sincere and void of offence unto the day of Christ" (Phil. 1.9-10). What was it that inspired him to offer such a prayer for the dear saints in Philippi? Do we today desperately need the same prayer? We talk about love and fellowship, and yet we encounter many problems and failures. What is the missing link to a glorious church? Can it be the lack of "full knowledge and all perception that ye may prove [or, distinguish] the things that differ" (literal translation)? Certainly spiritual discernment is the pressing need of today. How can we obtain this full knowledge of God? Where do we get spiritual discernment that we may know the things which differ or are more excellent? These are the matters which brother Watchman Nee tried to address during his latter years of ministry. This present volume, entitled Spiritual Discernment is composed of three parts: Abound in Knowledge, Abound in Discernment, and Approve the Excellent. The Publishers were able to acquire these Notes in Chinese recently, and they have now been translated into English for sharing with the English-speaking saints. May these Notes help many in meeting the pressing need of today.

sit walk stand watchman nee pdf: The Latent Power of the Soul Watchman Nee, 1972-06 For the word of God is living, and active, and sharper than any two-edged sword, and piercing even to the dividing of soul and spirit, of both joints and marrow, and quick to discover the thoughts and intents of the heart (Heb. 4:12). The peril of the believer is to confuse the spirit for the soul and the soul for the spirit, and so be deceived into accepting the counterfeit of evil spirits to the unsettling of God's work. The greatest advantage in knowing the difference between spirit and soul is perceiving the latent power of the soul and in understanding its falsification of the power of the Holy Spirit. Such knowledge is not theoretical but practical in helping people to walk in God's way. In this book, Watchman Nee shares his insight on The Latent Power of The Soul, The Christian and Psychic Force, and Spirit Force vs Psychic Force. Nowadays the atmosphere is so charged with the commotion of all kinds of counterfeit that the Lord seems to be calling the Church to come to a higher ground. Today's situation is perilous. May we prove all things; hold fast that which is good (1Thes. 5:21)

sit walk stand watchman nee pdf: The Ministry of God's Word Watchman Nee, 1994-09-01
The most important work of God on earth is the speaking out of His word through man. In the Old Testament God's word was released through the ministry of the prophets, and in the New Testament it was released through the ministry of the Lord Jesus and later through the apostles. Even though God is pleased to allow us to speak His word, the greatest measure of our usefulness as a minister of the Word is not the amount of our Bible knowledge or even the ability to eloquently present the truth; rather, it is the degree to which our inward parts have been molded and shaped by the Holy Spirit. The Ministry of God's Word contains a series of messages given by Watchman Nee in 1948 and 1949 after nearly thirty years of ministry. These messages are deep, profound, subjective, and full of light, revealing both the depth of his experience and extent of our need to open to the Holy Spirit's inward operation.

sit walk stand watchman nee pdf: Let Us Pray Watchman Nee, 1977-08 What is prayer? Are we really praying when we pray? Do we know the power of prayer? These matters and others must be understood if we would have a real prayer life and be effective in prayer. In this little volume of collected messages given over a long period of ministry by the author, and which are now translated and published in English for the first time, Watchman Nee shares with us the lessons on prayer that he has learned through the years. He considers prayer to be a mystery, though not something that is incomprehensible. He views prayer as the greatest work to which men are called. It is a working together with God. Through it, God's purpose is accomplished and Satan's intentions are broken. And its benefit to the one who prays is something great as well. Let us therefore follow the admonition of our blessed Lord, who said: Rise and pray (Luke 22.46).
